

Private Studio Lesson Policies

Lessons

I offer 30- and 60-minute weekly lessons at a standard rate of $100 per hour. Sliding scale rates are negotiable on an individual basis. Lessons take place on Zoom or in-person, at your place or mine (SE PDX), as logistics allow.

Payment

You may pay for lessons monthly at the beginning of each month or weekly, preferably via cash, check, or Zelle.

24-Hour Cancellation Policy

I require at least 24 hours notice if you wish to cancel a lesson, except in the case of unexpected illness or other emergencies. If we're not able to schedule an alternative meeting time that week, you must pay for the missed lesson. It goes both ways, so if I cancel last minute and we cannot reschedule, you get a free lesson.

Two Weeks Notice

If you wish to stop taking lessons with me for a season or indefinitely, please provide two weeks notice whenever possible so I can try to refill your spot. If I am no longer able to teach you, I will afford you the same courtesy.
